NEWS FROM REBECCA SMITH - YOUR PROSPECTIVE MP

REBECCA SMITH SELECTED TO FIGHT FOR LOCAL PEOPLE

Rebecca Smith has been selected as the new Conservative candidate for South West Devon.

Following Sir Gary Streeter MP's announcement that he is to retire after 32 years in office, local candidate Rebecca Smith has been selected to defend the seat at the next General Election.

Rebecca grew up locally and attended Plymouth High School for Girls. After a season away studying and working, she returned home in July 2015 to pursue her passion for making a difference through politics. She serves as a Councillor in Plymstock and works for the Commonwealth War Graves Commission.

Rebecca Smith, pictured here with Sir Gary Streeter MP, brings a wealth of local knowledge and a reputation for getting things done

Speaking after her selection, Rebecca said:

"Our diverse community, which encompasses the Plympton and Plymstock suburbs of Plymouth, communities of the South Hams and Moorland villages from West Devon, faces increasing challenges and opportunities. It is my job as the next General Election approaches to win the trust of residents like you, convincing you that I share your priorities and can be a strong voice on the national stage."

It is my job to win the trust and support of residents like you
